  - Past Activities
    - List of all dormant and past activities. These are activities not even listed on the Activities page.*
  - -- ResearchWorks --
    - List of all activities with a prototype element. This should be here in the hierarchy, but not show up in the sidebar navigation. See the note under "each individual activity page" for more.*
  - -- Software --
    - List of all activities with a software element. This should be here in the hierarchy, but not show up in the sidebar navigation. See the note under "each individual activity page" for more.*
  - -- each individual activity page --
    - Each activity gets its own page. This page can point to other pages, but there must be only a single "landing" page per activity here in the hierarchy. These pages are in the Activities hierarchy, but should be invisible to the sidebar and to any complete sitemap produced... if this is not possible, then maybe we can create an alternative "Individual Activities" at the top level that never shows up in the navigation at all?*
- Publications
  - A list of all publications or a link to the WorldCat Local instance which lists all publications.*
  - Articles & Reports
    - A list or link to subset of publications.*
  - Presentations
